

Restoration ecology – The Lignite Basin and Culture Steppes

Date: Monday, 22nd August

Departure: 8 AM (8:00) from Dormitories A (Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague)

GPS coordinates: 50.1316156N, 14.3762656E (the point on the map)

Arrival: about 4:30 PM (16:30) back to the Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague

What you will need: something to drink (for half a day), clothes for a terrain and according to the weather (off-road shoes, long pants, hat).

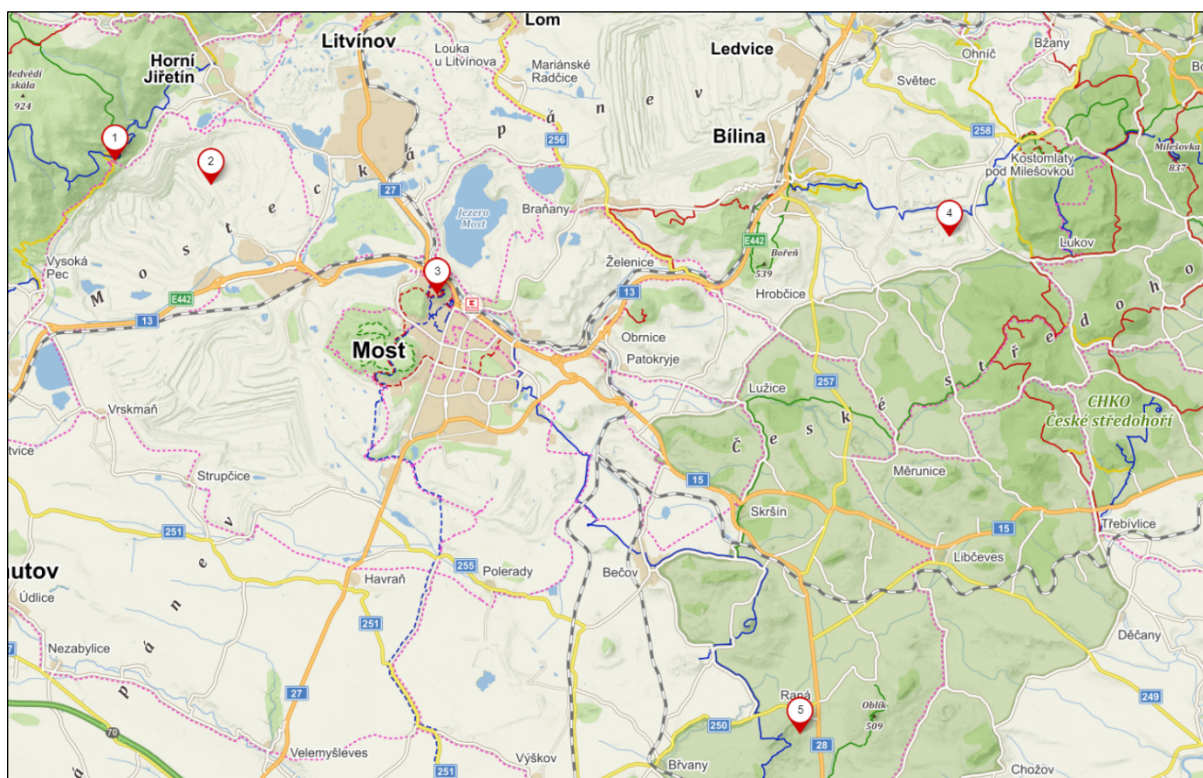

Lunch box will be provided.

You can also buy something to drink in the bus during the entire day.

The walking will be from a half an hour to two hours per one walk (low difficulty).

Schedule

- 8:00 am – departure from the Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague
- 9:30–10:00 am – the view of the mining landscape (points 1)
- 10:00–12:00 am – brown coal mine pit “Velkolom Československé armády” (2)
- 12:00–1:00 am – the castle Hněvín, Most (point 3)
- 1:00–2:30 pm – Radovesická spoil bank, examples of technical reclamation and natural restoration (point 4)
- 2:30–3:30 pm – České středohoří PLA – introduction of the Life project, examples of protected area management (5)
- points on the map <https://mapy.cz/s/nuvorefeto>

You do not need a registration before the trip!!!

The congress registration you will take after the arrival back to the Czech University of Life Sciences in Prague.

In case of some unexpected problem, contact the organiser at:

+420 773 471 948 Katerina Trejbalova

We wish you a pleasant trip. Enjoy!